

STRIKING INCIDENTS IN LAST NIGHT'S BASKET BALL GAME.

Columbia University Team Won an Interesting Game from 57th Street Y. M. C. A. Players.

Columbia University's basketball team won a lively game last night from the representatives of the Fifty-seventh street branch of the Y. M. C. A. at the latter's gym. The final score was 15 to 10. The collegians put up an interesting game, but found their opponents were able to cope with all attempts at scoring.

SEN. CLARK'S SON TO BACK MONROE.

Willing to Bet $1,000 that Miner Can Outpoint Jeffries in Six-Round Bout.

BUTTE, Mon., Dec. 23.—It is not often that a fighter can boast of a millionaire as a backer, but that is what Jack Monroe, the miner, who gave Jim Jeffries a beating on Saturday night can do today. No less a personage either than Charles W. Clark, the son of Senator Clark, the "Copper King," is the man who thinks Monroe a first fighter. Young Clark saw Monroe box in California two years ago when he won the amateur heavy-weight championship, and saw him in his "go" with Jeffries on Saturday night and now he says he will bet any part of $1,000 that Monroe can not only stay six rounds with Jeffries, but that he will outpoint him in a bout of that length. There is $1,000 up now with a challenge to Jeffries for a six-round bout with the miner and although it has not been stated positively it is thought the money is young Clark's.

Monroe is not working in the mines this week. He is in training, prepared for a moment's call to meet the champion of the world in another bout.

The reports of the bout between

Jeffries and Monroe were not correct in every detail. It might be said now that Monroe not only had the best of his bout with the champion, but in the third round he knocked Jeffries down twice and had him so groggy that another blow had delivered it would have put the champion to sleep. Besides that he chopped Jeffries's face so badly with right and left jabs that at the finish the champion was bleeding badly from several cuts.

Regarding Monroe, it cannot be said that he has a "swelled head." In fact, his demeanor is exactly the opposite. He takes his climb to fame ordinarily, and in speaking of the bout only says, "Well, I just managed to do it." "I was not in the best of condition," says Monroe, "and had not had on a glove for two years until ten days ago. Previous to that time I was working hard in the mines, and I might say now that if I cannot beat Tom Sharkey I will go back to them. Regarding Jeffries, I have no idea that I can beat him in a finish fight. I am not so conceited as to think I can do that. However, I would meet him in another short bout."

Jeffries is enthusiastic in his praises of Monroe. He says he believes him to be a corner, and that if he gets in the right hands and is coached properly he will soon be able to beat a great many fighters in his class to-day.

The date fixed was $21,000. It is hardly possible that Gray would let that get away from him.

The report that Tommy West and Marvin Hart have been matched to box in Louisville is denied by the managers of the Savannah Athletic Club. In speaking of the match one of the club supporters said that the match was not wanted.

Harry Forbes Stakes Bantam-Weight Championship in Bout with Neil in Oakland.

LITTLE MEN MEET IN RING TO-NIGHT.

A battle for the bantam-weight championship of the world will be decided at Oakland, Cal., to-night. The lads who will fight for the title are Harry Forbes, of Chicago, the present champion, and Frankie Neil, of California. They will meet in a fifteen-round bout before the Reliance A. C. for 60 per cent. of the gross receipts.

If Neil is as good a boy as reports say he is, Forbes is likely to lose his hold on the title. The latter has had only four days' training and as he was five pounds over the weight he is to weigh in at when he began work he may have been weakened. Neil, according to reports, has been training for over four weeks and is in perfect shape for the fight.

He is said to be a remarkably clever youngster, a stiff puncher and a good blocker.

Sieger and Gans Again.

Joe Gans and Charley Sieger, of Hoboken, the gamest light-weights who ever entered a ring, are to meet again in the roped arena. They have been matched to meet in a twelve-round bout before the Cambridge (Mass.) A. C. on Dec. 21. The last time they met Gans defeated Sieger in fourteen rounds. In that battle Sieger exhibited gameness seldom shown by a pugilist.

Fight May Go to Canada.

As The Evening World stated last week the "Corbett" and McGovern fight will likely be decided in Windsor, Can. At least, Billy Considine, matchmaker of the Metropolitan A. C. of Detroit, realizing that he cannot hold the fight in Detroit, is now making arrangements to hold a fight in a big armory in Windsor.

No Forefets for Fighters.

Considine has not posted his certified check for $5,000 to guarantee the holding of the "Corbett" and McGovern battle, and so the fighters will hardly get the $5,000 to which each is entitled as a result of Considine's failure to hold the battle in Detroit. If "Corbett" and McGovern fail to get the money they have no one but themselves to blame. When they agreed to fight before Considine's club they took the latter's word that he would post a certified check for $5,000 the following day.

Hurst Is Laughing Now.

Tim Hurst, who represented the Southern A. C. of Louisville, at the meeting when the bids were opened, had $2,500 in his pocket to post a deposit if he was successful in securing the bout. The fighters, however, refused Hurst's offer, just because he had put up $2,500. Hurst now has the laugh on the fighters. After the fight he will be able to let the Southern A. C. know that he is not a writer, as he was said to be. "They will be glad to accept my $2,500 later on," he said.

Although Bob Gray, matchmaker of the Southern Athletic Club, of Louisville, says he will not take a bid, it is likely that he will change his mind. Gray lost over $5,000 when he failed to post a bid for the contest two days before

UNION BOAT CLUB EXPELS C. S. TITUS

Oarsman, Who Rowed at Henley Last Year, Will Now Sue Organization for $10,000.

C. S. Titus, the oarsman who was sent to the Henley regatta last summer, has been expelled from the Union Boat Club at a meeting of the Board of Directors on what he asserts were trumped-up charges. He will now sue the club for $10,000 damages, which he alleges he will suffer from injury to his reputation and standing as an amateur oarsman.

For the past two years there has been considerable friction in the Union Boat Club over the dislike that several members expressed toward Titus. Some time ago, when Titus won a pennant in Massachusetts, he refused to turn it over to his club, as it had not paid his expenses. This action aroused considerable feeling in the club and about three weeks ago the oarsman was summoned to appear before the Board of Directors to answer three charges, two of which were based on conduct alleged to reflect on the sportsmanship of an amateur. The third charge embraced discourtesy to the officers of the club. At the time set for the trial Titus appeared with his lawyers, but the Board of Directors failed to show up. Then at another meeting they expelled him from the club.

To Retain Newark A. C. Links.

Prominent members of the Newark Athletic Club are discussing a proposition to retain the golf links which the club is about to lose. They have sent a circular letter out, hoping to get 100 members to sign a petition to the city, and thereby retain the links. Golf is the only athletic feature of the Newark A. C.

Event Motor-Paced Championship Will Be Held on Circuit.

A new cycle championship will be contested for by the pedal-pushers next season. It will be a competition to determine the motor-paced championship of the United States. For some time such a series has been suggested by cyclists, but nothing came of it until night, when at a special meeting held by cycle track owners arrangements for the event were completed.

The riders will compete in every championship race, the winner scoring five points, the second three and the third one. A certain percentage of the prize money will be set aside for a grand prize fund, to be distributed among the five leaders at the close of the series.
